UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

VANESSA RACINE,
Plaintiff,
v.
PHW LAS VEGAS, LLC, et al.,
Defendants.

2:10-cv-01651-LDG -VCF
ORDER

Before the court is defendants PHW Las Vegas, LLC, et al.'s proposed protective order (#37-2) and plaintiff Vanessa Racine's objections thereto (#38-1).

Accordingly, and for good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that this Protective Order shall govern the disclosure, handling and disposition of documents and information in this litigation as follows:

1. Application.

1.1 This Protective Order shall govern any document, information or other material that is designated as containing "Confidential Information" or "Attorney's Eyes Only Information" as defined herein, and is produced in connection with this litigation by any person or entity (the "producing party"), whether in response to a discovery request, subpoena or otherwise, to any other person or entity (the "receiving party") regardless of whether the person or entity producing or receiving such information is a party to this litigation.

2. Definitions.

2.1 Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" shall mean and include, without limitation, any non-public information that concerns or relates to the following areas: confidential proprietary information, trade secrets, security and surveillance policies, practices and procedures, commercial, financial, pricing, budgeting, and/or accounting information, information about

1 existing and potential customers, marketing studies, performance projections, business strategies, 2 decisions and/or negotiations, personnel compensation, evaluations and other employment information, 3 and confidential proprietary information about affiliates, parents, subsidiaries and third-parties with 4 whom the parties to this action have or have had business relationships. "Confidential information" may 5 be contained in the following documents: manuals, contracts, correspondence (electronic or otherwise), 6 blueprints, specifications, drawings, security records, security reports, security shift information and 7 staffing levels, security patrols, security policies and procedures, locations of surveillance and security 8 cameras, documents regarding surveillance and security camera capabilities, production documents, 9 analytical reports, certification-related documents, meeting minutes, meeting notices, presentation 10 documents, and other documents relating to the acquisition of Planet Hollywood Resort & Casino by 11 Defendants.

12 2.2 Attorney's Eyes Only Information. "Attorney's Eyes Only Information" is a subset 13 of Confidential Information that includes any document or testimony that contains highly sensitive 14 proprietary, security, surveillance, private, financial or trade secret information where the disclosing 15 party reasonably believes that disclosure of such information to other parties in the litigation would 16 cause severe competitive damage.

17 2.3 Documents. As used herein, the term "documents" includes all writings, records, 18 files, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, e-mails, video tapes, audio tapes, compact discs, electronic 19 messages, other data compilations from which information can be obtained and other tangible things 20 subject to production under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

21 3. Initial Designation.

22 3.1 Good Faith Claims. Claims of confidentiality will be made only with respect to 23 documents, other tangible things and information that the asserting party has a good faith belief are 24 within the definition set forth in subparagraph 2.1 of this Protective Order. Objections to such claims 25 made pursuant to paragraph 5, below, shall also be made only in good faith.

1 3.2 Produced Documents. A party producing documents that it believes constitute 2 or contain Confidential Information shall produce copies bearing a label that contains or includes 3 language substantially identical to the following:

4 CONFIDENTIAL

5 This label shall be affixed in a manner that does not obliterate or obscure the contents of the 6 copies. If any person or party makes copies of documents designated as containing Confidential
7 Information, the copying person or party shall mark each such copy as containing Confidential
8 Information in the same form as the Confidentiality notice on the original document.

9 A party producing documents that are stored on electronic, magnetic, optical or other non-paper
10 media, such as compact discs, DVD's, video tapes and audio tapes (collectively, "data storage devices") 11 shall designate the data storage device as containing Confidential Information, by affixing a label or 12 stamp to the data storage device in the manner described above at the time copies of such data storage 13 devices are produced. If the receiving party or other persons or entities to whom disclosure is authorized 14 pursuant to subparagraph 7.1 make a copy of any data storage device designated by the producing party 15 as containing Confidential Information, the receiving party or other authorized person shall mark each 16 such copy as containing Confidential Information in the same form as the confidentiality notice on the 17 original data storage device produced. If the receiving party or other authorized person prints out or 18 otherwise makes copies of the documents or information stored on such data storage device, the 19 receiving party or other authorized person shall mark each page so copied with the label or stamp 20 specified in subparagraph 3.2.

21 A party producing documents that it believes constitute or contain Attorney's Eyes Only 22 Information shall follow the procedures set forth above with respect to Confidential Information, except 23 that the copies shall be produced bearing a label that contains or includes language substantially 24 identical to the following:

25 ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY

1 3.3 Interrogatory Answers. If a party answering an interrogatory or other discovery
2 demand believes that its answer contains Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information, 3 it shall set forth that answer in a separate document that is produced and designated in the same manner 4 as a produced document under subparagraph 3.2. Such answers should make reference to the 5 separately-produced document containing the answer, but such document should not be attached to the 6 response.

7 3.4 Inspection of Documents. In the event a party elects to produce files and records
8 for inspection and the requesting party elects to inspect them, no designation of Confidential 9 Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information needs to be made in advance of the inspection. For 10 purposes of such inspection, all material produced shall be considered as Confidential Information. If 11 the inspecting party selects specified documents to be copied, the producing party shall designate 12 Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information in accordance with subparagraph 3.2 at 13 the time the copies are produced.

14 3.5 Deposition Transcripts. Within twenty-one (21) days after the receipt of a 15 deposition transcript, a party may inform the other parties to the action of the portions of the transcript 16 that it wishes to designate as Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information. Until such 17 time has elapsed, deposition transcripts in their entirety are to be considered as Confidential 18 Information. All parties in possession of a copy of a designated deposition transcript shall mark it 19 appropriately.

20 3.6 Multi-page Documents. A party may designate all pages of an integrated, multi-21 page document, including a deposition transcript and interrogatory answers, as Confidential Information
22 or Attorney's Eyes Only Information by placing the label specified in subparagraph 3.2 on the first page 23 of the document or on each page of the document. If a party wishes to designate only certain portions 24 of an integrated, multi-page document as Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information, 25 it should designate such portions immediately below the label on the first page of the document and 26

1 place the label specified in subparagraph 3.2 on each page of the document containing Confidential
2 Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information.

3 4. Designations by Another Party.

4 4.1 Notification of Designation. If a party other than the producing party believes that 5 a producing party has produced a document that contains or constitutes Confidential Information or 6 Attorney's Eyes Only Information of the non-producing party, the non-producing party may designate 7 the document as Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information by so notifying all 8 parties in writing within fourteen (14) days of service of the document.

9 4.2 Return of Documents; Non-disclosure. Whenever a party other than the producing 10 party designates a document produced by a producing party as Confidential Information or Attorney's 11 Eyes Only Information in accordance with subparagraph 4.1, each party receiving the document shall 12 either add the Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information designation in accordance 13 with subparagraph 3.2 or substitute a copy of the document bearing such designation for each copy of 14 the document produced by the producing party. Each party shall destroy all undesignated copies of the 15 document or return those copies to the producing party, at the direction of the producing party. No party 16 shall disclose a produced document to any person, other than the persons authorized to receive 17 Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information under subparagraph 7.1, until after the 18 expiration of the fourteen (14) day designation period specified in subparagraph 4.1. If during the 19 fourteen (14) day designation period a party discloses a produced document to a person authorized to 20 receive Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information under subparagraph 7.1, and that 21 document is subsequently designated as Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information 22 in accordance with subparagraph 4.1, the disclosing party shall cause all copies of the document to be 23 destroyed or returned to the producing party, at the direction of the producing party. The party may 24 thereafter disclose a copy of the document that has been marked as Confidential Information or 25 Attorney's Eyes Only Information by the designating party, in accordance with subparagraphs 3.2 and 26

5. Objections to Designations. Any party objecting to a designation of Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information, including objections to portions of designations of multi-page documents, shall notify the designating party and all other parties of the objection in writing within thirty (30) days of such designation. If a document is first produced less than sixty (60) days before the then-pending trial date, such notification shall occur within half of the time remaining before trial. This notice must specifically identify each document that the objecting party in good faith believes should not be designated as Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information and provide a brief statement of the grounds for such belief. In accordance with the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure governing discovery disputes, the objecting and the designating parties thereafter shall confer within ten (10) days after the date of such objection in an attempt to resolve their differences. If the parties are unable to resolve their differences, the objecting party shall have twenty-one (21) days after the conference concludes to file with the Court a motion to remove the Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information designation. If an objection is served within forty-two (42) days of trial, the objecting party must file its motion to remove the Confidential Information designation within half of the remaining time before trial, and the meet-and-confer period shall be shortened accordingly. Where a party authored, created, owns, or controls a document, information or other material that another party designates as Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information, the party that authored, created, owns, or controls the Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information may so inform the objecting party and thereafter shall also be considered a designating party for purposes of this paragraph.

All documents, information and other materials initially designated as Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information shall be treated as such in accordance with this Protective Order unless and until the Court rules otherwise, except for deposition transcripts and exhibits initially considered as containing Confidential Information under subparagraph 3.5, which will lose their

1 confidential status after twenty-one (21) days unless so designated as Confidential Information or 2 Attorney's Eyes Only Information. If the Court rules that a designation should not be maintained as to 3 a particular document, the producing party shall, upon written request by a party, provide that party a 4 copy of that document without the designation described in subparagraph 3.2.

5 If an objecting party elects not to make such a motion with respect to documents, information 6 or other materials to which an objection has been made, the objection shall be deemed withdrawn. If 7 such a motion is made, the moving party shall bear the burden of proving that the document, 8 information, or other material is not entitled to protection under the applicable law.

9 6. Custody. All Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information and any and 10 all copies, extracts and summaries thereof, including memoranda relating thereto, shall be retained by 11 the receiving party in the custody of counsel of record, or by persons to whom disclosure is authorized 12 under subparagraph 7.1.

13 7. Handling Prior to Trial.

14 7.1 Authorized Disclosures. Confidential Information shall be disclosed by the 15 receiving party only to the following persons:

- 16 a. Counsel for the parties in this litigation, including their associates, 17 clerks, paralegals, and secretarial personnel;
- 18 b. Qualified persons taking testimony in this litigation involving such 19 Confidential Information, and necessary stenographic, videotape and 20 clerical personnel;
- 21 c. Experts and their staff who are consulted by counsel for a party in this 22 litigation;
- 23 d. Parties to this litigation, limited to the named party and, if that party is 24 a corporate entity, a limited number of employees of the corporate entity 25 and its insurers;

- e. Designated in-house counsel and a limited number of assistants, administrative or otherwise;
- f. Outside vendors employed by counsel for copying, scanning and general handling of documents;
- g. Any person of whom testimony is taken regarding the Confidential Information, except that such person may only be shown Confidential Information during his/her testimony, and may not retain a copy of such Confidential Information; and
- h. This Court and this Court's staff, subject to the Court's processes for filing materials under seal.

Such disclosures are authorized only to the extent necessary to investigate, prosecute, or defend the litigation.

Confidential Information may not be disclosed to persons under subparagraph (c) until the receiving party has obtained a written acknowledgment from the person receiving Confidential Information, in the form of the Declaration attached hereto, that he or she has received a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by it. A party who discloses Confidential Information in accordance with subparagraph 7.1 shall retain the written acknowledgment from each person receiving Confidential Information, shall maintain a list of all persons to whom a receiving party has disclosed Confidential Information and identify what documents have been disclosed, and shall furnish the written acknowledgments and disclosure list to the Court for in camera review upon its request or order. Furnishing the written acknowledgments and disclosure list to the Court shall not constitute a waiver of the attorney work product or attorney-client privilege. Disclosure of Confidential Information to this Court, including judicial staff, shall be made in accordance with subparagraph 7.4 of this Protective Order.

The disclosure of Attorney's Eyes Only Information is limited in the same ways as set forth

1 above for Confidential Information except that, in addition, Attorney's Eyes Only Information may not 2 be disclosed to persons described above in subparagraphs (d) and (e) without prior written consent by 3 the designating party nor to persons within the category described above in subparagraph (g) without 4 prior notice to the designating party under circumstances allowing the designating party to obtain 5 adequate protection with respect to the Attorney's Eyes Only Information either by agreement or by 6 application to the Court.

7 7.2 Disclosure to Competitors. In general, Confidential Information and Attorney's 8 Eyes Only Information may not be disclosed to competitors of a designating party. However, if at any 9 time such disclosure is believed to be necessary to advance the interest of a party, then before disclosing
10 Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information to any authorized person who is a 11 competitor (or an employee of a competitor) of the designating party, the party wishing to make such 12 disclosure shall give at least fourteen (14) days notice in writing to the designating party, stating the 13 names and addresses of the person(s) to whom the disclosure will be made, and identifying with 14 particularity the documents to be disclosed. If, within the fourteen (14) day period, a motion is filed 15 objecting to the proposed disclosure, disclosure is not authorized unless and until the Court orders 16 otherwise. For purposes of this Protective Order, "competitor" is defined as any person or entity that 17 designs, manufactures, assembles or supplies products to or for the market(s) served by the designating 18 party ("competitive products") or components of competitive products.

19 7.3 Unauthorized Disclosures. All persons receiving Confidential Information or 20 Attorney's Eyes Only Information under the terms of this Protective Order are under the jurisdiction of 21 the state courts and U.S. federal courts located in Nevada for all matters arising from the improper 22 disclosure or use of such information. If Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information 23 is disclosed to any person other than in the manner authorized by this Protective Order, the party or 24 person responsible for the disclosure, and any other party or person who is subject to this Protective 25 Order and learns of such disclosure, shall immediately bring such disclosure to the attention of the 26

1 designating party. Without prejudice to other rights and remedies of the designating party, the 2 responsible party or person shall make every effort to obtain and return the Confidential Information 3 or Attorney's Eyes Only Information and to prevent further disclosure on its own part or on the part of 4 the person who was the unauthorized recipient of such information.

5 7.4 Court Filings. In the event any Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only 6 Information must be filed with the Court prior to trial, the proposed filing shall comply with the Nevada 7 Rules of Civil Procedure. In accordance with these rules, the proposed filing shall be accompanied by 8 a motion to file the Confidential Information under seal and a proposed order, and the application and 9 proposed order shall be directed to the judge to whom the Confidential Information is directed. This 10 provision is applicable to briefs, memoranda, and other filings which quote, summarize, or describe 11 Confidential Information.

12 8. Care in Storage. Any person in possession of Confidential Information or Attorney's 13 Eyes Only Information produced by another party shall exercise reasonable and appropriate care with 14 regard to the storage, custody, copying, and use of such information to ensure that the confidential and 15 sensitive nature of same is maintained.

16 9. Handling During Trial. Confidential Information and Attorney's Eyes Only Information
17 that is subject to this Order may be marked and used as trial exhibits by either party, subject to terms 18 and conditions as imposed by the Court upon application by any party.

19 10. No Implied Waivers. This Protective Order shall not be interpreted as a waiver of the 20 right to object, under applicable law, to the furnishing of information in response to discovery requests 21 or to object to a requested inspection of documents or facilities. Parties producing Confidential 22 Information and Attorney's Eyes Only Information in this litigation are doing so only pursuant to the 23 terms of this Protective Order. The taking of any action in accordance with the provisions of this 24 Protective Order shall not be interpreted as a waiver of any claim or position or defense in this action, 25 or any other actions.

1 11. No Admission. The designation of any item as Confidential Information or Attorney's 2 Eyes Only Information shall not be construed as an admission that such material, or any testimony 3 concerning such material, would be admissible in evidence in this litigation or in any other proceeding.

4 12. Inadvertent Disclosure. Nothing in this Protective Order abridges applicable law 5 concerning inadvertent disclosure of a document that the Disclosing Party believes contains 6 attorney-client communications, attorney work product, or otherwise privileged information. If a party 7 inadvertently discloses documents or information subject to a claim of privilege or work product 8 protection, such disclosure will not waive otherwise applicable claims of privilege or work product
9 protection under applicable law. Upon discovery by the Receiving Party, or receipt of written notice
10 from the Disclosing Party identifying privileged or Protected Documents that were inadvertently 11 produced, the receiving party shall within seven (7) business days either: (a) return or certify the 12 destruction of all such documents, all copies, and any work product or portions of any work product 13 containing or reflecting the contents of the subject materials; or (b) after attempting to resolve any 14 dispute with opposing counsel informally, file a motion to challenge the assertion of privilege and tender 15 the subject documents for in camera review with the motion. The moving party shall do nothing to 16 compromise the privilege claim until the Court rules on said motion and the opportunity for appellate 17 review is exhausted or the issue is otherwise resolved.

18 13. Parties' Own Documents. This Protective Order shall in no way restrict the parties in 19 their use of their own documents and information, and nothing in this Protective Order shall preclude 20 any party from voluntarily disclosing its own documents or information to any party or nonparty.

21 14. Motion to Compel Production of Confidential Information. If any third party 22 subpoenas Confidential Information and/or Attorney's Eyes Only Information from a party to this action 23 or moves to compel a party to this action to produce any such information, such party shall immediately 24 notify the parties who originally produced and/or designated such information that a subpoena has been 25 served or a motion has been made in order to allow the parties who originally produced and/or 26

1 designated such information the opportunity to seek a protective order or oppose the motion or 2 application. If, within thirty (30) days after receiving notice of a subpoena seeking Confidential 3 Information and/or Attorney's Eyes Only Information from a receiving party, the party who originally 4 produced and/or designated such information fails to move for a protective order, the party subject to 5 the subpoena may produce said information. In addition, if a party is ordered to produce Confidential 6 Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information covered by this Protective Order, then notice and, if 7 available, a copy of the order compelling disclosure shall immediately be given the parties who 8 originally produced and/or designated such information. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be 9 construed as requiring the party who is ordered to produce such Confidential Information or Attorney's 10 Eyes Only Information to challenge or appeal any order requiring the production of such information 11 or to subject himself/herself to any penalty for non-compliance with any legal process or seek any relief 12 from the Court.

13 15. No Effect on Other Rights. This Protective Order shall in no way abrogate or diminish 14 any pre-existing contractual, statutory, or other legal obligations or rights of any party with respect to 15 Confidential Information.

16 16. Modification. In the event any party hereto seeks a Court order to modify the terms of 17 this Protective Order, or seeks a protective order which incorporates the terms and conditions of this 18 Protective Order said party shall make such request by written stipulation or noticed motion to all parties 19 that must be served and filed in accordance with local court rules.

20 17. Handling Upon Conclusion of Litigation. All parties, counsel, and persons to whom 21 disclosure was made agree to return all Confidential Information and Attorney's Eyes Only Information 22 to the designating party within ninety (90) days of the conclusion of litigation between the parties, 23 including final appellate action or the expiration of time to appeal or seek further review. In addition,
24 counsel shall certify in writing that all such Confidential Information and Attorney's Eyes Only 25 Information have been returned. Counsel for each party also shall contact each person to whom that 26

1 party has provided a copy of any Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information and 2 request the documents be returned. In lieu of returning Confidential Information and Attorney's Eyes 3 Only Information, the person or party in possession of such information may elect to destroy it. If the 4 person or party in possession of Confidential Information or Attorney's Eyes Only Information elects 5 to destroy it rather than return it, that person or party must notify the designating party in writing of the 6 destruction of the information within ninety (90) days of the conclusion of litigation between the parties, 7 including final appellate action or the expiration of time to appeal or seek further review.
